Yoe Drops BHS In Practice Game

The Cameron Yoemen defeated Buckholts here Tuesday evening 15-6 in the first baseball practice contest of the season.

Buckholts jumped off to an early lead in the game when the Badgers first batter, Fritz, succeeded in knocking a Carroll Fikes pitch for a homerun. Fikes then simmered down to fan the next batter only for Lamar Gresek to bat a double off him and to be driven in by another two batter, J. Glaser. Fikes got through the inning without any more damage. The Yoemen were held scoreless in their time at bat.

Fikes fanned the first three men to face him on strikeouts allowing only three pitches to a batter in the top of the second.

Cameron broke loose from the 2-0 stranglehold in the bottom of the second with ten men at bat scoring four runs. Buckholts came ahead to tie in the third 4-4 but that was all the Badgers saw of victory as the Yoe sent thirteen to bat in the third. At the end of the game the Yoemen had scored ten more runs partly through the aid of a three run homer by freshman shortstop, Steve Malone. Buckholts picked up two more in the fourth but Cameron added one in the fifth to tally the final score of 15-6.

Cameron's leading hitters were Steve Malone and Johnny Tepera each going three for three. Fritz and Thomas Tate were each 2 for 3 for Buckholts.

The winning pitcher was Carroll Fikes, followed by Barkemeyer and Folschinsky.

Coach Speer's lineup read: Tepera, catcher, Bayer, First; Griswold, second; Folschinsky, third; Malone, shortstop; Barrett, left field; Tepera, center field; and Alvarez in right field.

Officials reported that the city equalization board with members Claud Triggs, J. T. Parma and Frank Stewart will be sworn in and hold their first meeting March 24.

In considering the purchase of water from Belton Reservoir, councilmen noted that industrial needs may require even more than the two million gallons available from the city water system.

Mayor Bassel Wilson reported the State Water Control Board has tentatively authorized an expanded city dam on Little River which would raise water storage area for Cameron about eight acres.

In other action the Council called for study of possibilities of opening Wilson Street near Ledbetter Park in southwest Cameron for use.

Chief Cheser Simons told The Herald that the three-cell city jail will be ready for use by next week. Construction is complete except for some modifications of interior painting. The jail was constructed behind City Hall.

The jail will also house the city police department, he noted.

Officials noted that E. 10th St. is ready for letting of bids for paving and guttering.

City Water Supt. Alvin Hefft noted that Cameron will be host in May to a monthly meeting of the Centex Water Association.

To Fix Field, Tennis Courts

Honors Program Outlined

The Cameron School Board Thursday approved a faculty recommendation to limit high school class honors to students in fast classes and okayed resurfacing of school tennis courts and replanting of Yoe Field.

Board members heard Supt. Wiley Loughmiller read a two-part resolution which called for:

ONE. Limiting valedictorian and scholarship honors to students gaining high ratings from the "fast" group of students developed in the school's accelerated learning program.

TWO. Allowing only students from "fast" classes to earn A's in academic subjects with students in the average groups working toward a maximum of B grades. This measure was tabled for further study.

Board approval of the first measure followed a discussion of the merits of the accelerated program in relation to grades and class standing.

Faculty Report

The faculty recommendation noted that students would be rated on abilities, achievement test scores, teacher recommendations and actual performance in taking their places in either average or fast classes. About 25 per cent of junior and senior high students are in fast classes, Loughmiller said.

Loughmiller noted that about 1 per cent of the fast group were falling behind their class while about the same percentage of the average groups were moving to the fast groups because of superior performance.

In similar action, the board approved the introduction of Algebra I and General Science into the eighth grade curriculum. Students taking the courses would be tested for aptitudes in those fields prior to taking that training, Loughmiller said.

In approving surfacing of the tennis courts, the board called for a bid from Camp Construction Rogers, the contractor working on US 77 in Cameron. The project will cost about $750.

The board also called for replanting the sod on Yoe Field after the Cameron Relays allowing growth time before the 1959-60 football year. Pat Kelley, YHS vocational agriculture teacher, will head the project.

Other Action

The board also:

—Approved a low bid of $111.30 for tile work in Ben Milam School submitted by Nevt Hughes. Stanley Hughes was next low bidder at $145.

—Elected to drop consideration of city's request of $134.50 payment for services in collecting delinquent school taxes prior to 1953.

—Employed Ted Matula and K. K. Williams as substitute bus drivers.

—Denied consideration of installing Little League baseball lights at Yoe Baseball Field. Officials noted the program is not a school function though the school has sponsored the program in previous years.

—Accepted the resignation of Mrs. L. T. Ward, cook at O. J. Thomas and approved hiring of Addie Porter as replacement.

Spring is upon us.

It is probably the most wonderful part of the year as growing things blossom, the farmer's crops shoot up, trees bud and the young man's fancy turns to things interesting to the young lady the year 'round."

99-99-99

Cameron continues to buzz with construction activity.

Workmen are busy on the US 77 widening project through Cameron that was apparently slowed by rains during February. Two filling stations are in stages of remodeling along the route while a third has opened.

Work continues also on the nearly completed National Guard armory in west Cameron. Paint crews were busy this week on the interior offices of the $110,000 structure.

Officials noted that construction was slowed recently on the Southwest Bell dial building which is scheduled for July 1 completion.

99-99-99

The new three cell jail is about "ready for occupancy." The steel and concrete structure located behind City Hall will house the police headquarters offices and provide facilities for wayward citizens.

Chief Cheser Simons noted one special cell for lady occupants, a confining frill that went unmatched in previous city jail facilities.

All in all, it looks as if things are being built at a pretty good gait in Milam's county seat.

Speaking of building, it seems that Scouting activity is being centered in Cameron this year with Cameron's first Scout-orama scheduled for April 4.

Considering Cameron's central location in Texas and the many interests of Milam County agriculture, industry and commerce, it would be a good convention center for a broad number of organizations such as Scouts, civic clubs, and other groups.

Cameron has a start on Scouting here since we have the area Scout executive as one of our own. But some additional hustle would bring other highlights to Cameron for broad local interest and support.

TELEPHONE TALK

by C. L. Carson, Manager

HIGH IN VALUE — LOW IN COST

Your home telephone is a tireless messenger . . . at your service 24 hours a day! It saves you needless trips...helps you get more done...keeps you in touch with friends and neighbors.

Your home telephone is good insurance . . . in emergencies, one call to the doctor, the police, or fire department is worth far more than the cost of many months' telephone service.

Your telephone is a friendly companion . . . ready to let you chat with friends and neighbors . . . helps you plan parties . . . do your club work . . . and often makes shopping easier.

What else gives you so much value for so little cost.

A PART OF GOOD LIVING

Nowadays, we hear the term "good living" quite often. I have a few ideas about it, but to find out what it means to other people, I brought up the subject with a group of friends a week or so ago.

Before the "good living" talk was over and the coffee served, one of the women made music for my ears by saying that the telephones in color in her home are certainly an important part of good living.

Everyone seemed to agree, and that gave me a chance to point out that extra telephones in bedrooms and kitchens are low in cost, too — just $1.00 a month plus installation. For color, you know, there's a one-time charge of $10.

P. S. I sold a couple, too.

LOOKING AHEAD TO EASTER

Easter Sunday, to most of us, is a happy, dress-up go-to-church day for all the family. And I hope you and your family will all be together for a Happy Easter.

Unfortunately, some families are scattered and won't be gathered around the table for the carving of the ham.

For these families, a Long Distance visit or two by telephone is the answer. It's the next best thing to being there in person, and everyone has fun on an out-of-town call.

Naturally, low Sunday rates will be in effect. And if you call station-to-station, you can talk longer for less.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

It's Up To Khrushchev. . .

Developments in the Berlin Crisis are framing toward Khrushchev's favor at the moment.

The hearty little man with the gigantic complex has coerced the West to promises of another Summit, though as President Eisenhower promised, the United States would not compromise West Berlin into the Soviet sphere.

Berlin has simultaneously become a symbol and sore spot.

For Russia and Khrushchev, West Berlin stands as a threat to continued expansion of Communist imperialism. For Khrushchev, it is a irksome sore spot that weakens his propagandic claims of leadership in the Communist world.

For the West, tri-partite controlled West Berlin represents a symbolic deterrent to the whole Soviet scheme of aggression.

Khrushchev has been calling for another Summit meeting with Eisenhower, Macmillan and DeGaulle to show the world he can call the tune and then take propagandic advantage of top level double talk. He refuses any Berlin talks at the foreign minister level.

The West remembers well the results of the first Summit in 1955 when Russia fused the peace talks into a mass of twisted propaganda. The West has since been unwilling to undergo a return bout.

But true crisis in Berlin has brought us back to the Summit.

If the West were to gain a diplomatic victory at the Summit, Khrushchev would likely be unseated as the No. 1 Soviet leader. Russia already fears the growing strength of Communist China which takes less heed of Khrushchev each day West Berlin stands free.

It will be difficult for Khrushchev to agree to anything less than a free city status for all of Berlin. This would of course open the way for Communist control of the entire city.

The United States cannot agree to pulling out of Berlin under any circumstances without losing the propaganda advantage to Khrushchev. And the President has promised not to leave two million people open to Soviet domination.

The crisis smacks of the Munich situation in which Neville Chamberlain granted Adolph Hitler the Sudetenland in Czechoslovakia in 1938. It was only a matter of a year until Hitler then took over Austria, all of Czechoslovakia and invaded Poland and the Low Countries.

The Berlin problem will either destroy Khrushchev or give him greater leadership status in the world, depending upon the concessions he wins or loses.

In seeking to destroy the memory of Stalin, Khrushchev has proved his willingness to take any measure for personal aggrandizement. Summit talks on Berlin brings Khrushchev to a turning point: either a Munich or his Waterloo.

Farmer Can Move To Australia
But He Won't Escape Controls

Dear editor:

Every once in a while some thinker, after wrestling with the farm problem generally from a desk in a city, comes out with the announcement that if a farmer can't make it on a farm, let him move to town.

I never have paid any attention to this, as I'm not planning on moving to town, as I don't know anything about a town that'd make me more efficient than I am out here on this Johnson grass farm, and the best I can judge, city people have about as many economic problems as country people.

But I'll admit I'm a little puzzled by a farmer in the state of Michigan who has announced government controls have finally gotten him down and he's selling out and moving to Australia.

Now if anybody wants to move to Australia, it's all right with me, but I'm afraid that Michigan farmer thinks he's going to farm down there without any so-called controls, he'd better hold back enough money for a ticket to some place else. According to an article I read last night, an Australian farmer can plant what he wants to, but he can't sell to anybody except the government, at a price the government figures up after it buys all the stuff and sees what it can sell it for.

If this Michigan farmer doesn't like that system, he can move to England, where the government not only has controls, but even will put you off your land if you don't take care of it.

If that farmer doesn't like that system, he can move to Russia, where he could farm all right but couldn't own his land or what he grows.

Come to think of it, I don't know where that farmer can move to escape controls, and the way I see it, he may find Michigan isn't such a bad place after all.

As a matter of fact, controls probably are about like taxes.

Everybody complains about them, it's sort of a duty now a days, but we might be in worse shape without them than with them.

Personally, I'm going to stick with the United States, I'm going to stick with Texas, and I'm going to stick with this Johnson grass farm here in Milam County. Any time us farmers get tired of controls, we can vote em down, just like city people can vote to drive on both sides of the street at the same time if enough of em want to.

Say, taxes sure are high, ain't they?

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

Capital Report

Money Raising Bill Before Legislature

By Vern Sanford

Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—A possible shaft of light has pierced the murky tunnels of legislative tax study in the form of an "in-between" type money raising bill.

An omnibus tax measure introduced by Reps. R. L. Strickland of San Antonio and Wesley Roberts of Lamesa would tax a raft of things not previously hit, but avoid the label "general sales tax." It is regarded as a possible compromise between Gov. Price Daniel's tax program and Rep. Frates Seeligson's general sales tax, neither of which have attracted widespread support.

Strickland and Roberts estimate their proposal would raise from $200,000,000 to $300,000,000, an impressive sum even in the face of current huge needs.

New tax sources it would include sales of real estate, bonds, debentures, corporate stocks, transportation of persons and commodities, occupancy of a retail establishment, hotel and motel use, and trading stamps. It would increase the natural gas production tax and raise sales taxes on new cars, cosmetics, playing cards, radios and TV sets and raise taxes on telephone and telegraph companies.

"Strings" attached to the bill are that after the state deficit is paid off, the money raised could be used to provide school teachers a $500 a year raise, add $13,000,000 to higher education programs and $2,250,000 to the hospital program.

No Hurry

In terms of decisions, the tax program has made no dramatic forward strides.

Rep. Frates Seeligson of San Antonio, introduced his 1.5 per cent general sales tax measure.

It would raise an estimated $67,000,000 annually earmarked for the school foundation program. Informal surveys indicate a majority of lawmakers pledged opposition to a general sales tax in their campaigns last summer.

Despite urging from Gov. Daniel the House Tax Committee showed itself in no hurry to get out the bill that would raise corporation franchise taxes. Committee declined, on a 15-2 vote, to order a report from the subcommittee which holds the bill.

Part of the governor's plan was to get this bill passed in time to take effect May 1 so the added revenue from it could help offset this year's deficit.

Committee also agreed to allow more time to hear groups wishing to oppose a proposed trading stamp tax.

First Hurdle Cleared

Texas public school teachers won the first round in their campaign for an $800 a year pay raise.

Senate Committee voted favorably on the $107,800,000 public school improvement program recommended by the Hale-Aiken Committee. Teachers' raises would account for the bulk of the cost, include lengthening the school year to 180 days, increasing transportation allowances, programs for the academically gifted and for non-English speaking children, driver education, etc.

Some 3,000 teachers, plus many citizens from other walks of life, came to the Capitol in behalf of the bill.

Warm Issue

Another crowd-getter was the Senate hearing on the bill to reduce maximum working hours of firemen and policemen.

With feelings running high, the committee voted to send the bill to subcommittee for a week's study. Same bill was voted out favorably by the House Committee.

Also, Developing Young Bulls; Opportunities in Finishing Cattle for Market; The Use of Feed Additives; Methods of Supplemental Feeding for a Breeding Herd and the Packer's and Retailer's Point of View are all subjects set for discussion.

A highlight of the program is expected to be the evaluation of steers for carcass characteristics on the opening morning and the results of slaughter and cut-out tests on the same steers to be presented on Wednesday morning's final session. Four steers from the junior and open divisions of the recently held Houston Fat Stock Show have been obtained for use in this feature of the short course.

More details are available from either of the sponsors, beef breed associations or from local county agents. Those planning to attend are requested to notify the sponsors by March 27 so that final arrangements can be made.

DEALERS FOR DOW WEED, GRASS, AND BRUSH KILLERS

By J. D. Moore
County Agent

Cotton planting dates for Milam County are March 20 through May 31. The deadline for cotton stalk destruction is November 30. Planting periods and stalk destruction dates are mandatory in regulated zones of Texas to comply with the cultural practices set up to assist in the control of the pink bollworm.

Infestation of pink bollworms can be reduced greatly by cultural methods which entail little additional expense. The greatest benefit will be derived from these practices when carried out on a community, county and statewide basis.

The following recommendations, aimed at producing cotton more profitably under pink bollworm conditions, are based on results of research in several phases of cotton production: 1. Keep soil moisture level high; 2. follow uniform short planting period; 3. use insecticides if necessary; 4. stop irrigation after maximum bolls are set; 5. harvest and destroy stalks early; 6. prevent winter carryover of pink bollworms by plowing under the stalks.

Ways To Fight

Pink bollworm in Texas guides are available at the County Agents Office.

Cotton Meeting

County cotton meeting for Milam County will be held at the Thursday night, March 19, 7:30 p.m.

All cotton producers, insecticide dealers, etc., are urged to attend the meeting. Latest research on production and marketing of cotton will be given by specialist from A & M College. An added feature on this program will be an Economic Look At Cotton by Dr. Pat Wooten of the Agricultural Economics Department, Texas A & M College.

The Milam County Farm Bureau does an excellent job of sponsorship. The Home Demonstration women of the Cameron Club will serve refreshments.

Weed Control

Chemical weed control in lawns is a new leaflet available at the Extension office. Chemicals recommended are 1. Endothal; For easy-to-kill, broad-leaved weeds, weeds, such as burclover and henbit, use 3 to 4 tablespoons of endothal per gallon of water. For grass-type weeds, such as rescuegrass and ryegrass, use 6 to 7 tablespoons of endothal per gallon of water. Use 1 teaspoon of liquid household detergent or commercial wetting agent, or use 3 tablespoons of dry household detergent per gallon of endothal - water mixture. Apply the mixture as a broadcast spray or as a mop until the leaves and stems of the weeds are wet.

For effective control, use the endothal when the weeds are small; if they are more than 3 inches high, mow them closely and then treat after 3 or 4 days' regrowth.

Caution

Endothal should not be applied to ryegrass or bluegrass, for it likely will kill them. Endothal is toxic to all warm-blooded animals when taken internally. Avoid prolonged contact with the skin. Keep the material out of reach of children and domestic animals. Follow closely the directions on the container.

2. AMMONIUM NITRATE - Dissolve 1 pound of ammonium nitrate per gallon of water. Allow the solution to settle a few minutes and strain it, if it is to be applied with a sprayer. Apply the solution to settle a few minutes and strain it, if it is to be applied with a sprayer. Apply the solution broadcast with a sprinkler can or sprayer at the rate of 4 gallons per 1,000 sq. ft. Spot treatment should be avoided since the nitrogen will cause green spots that are difficult to eliminate. Mow the plant's closely 3 to 4 days before treatment. The solution is very corrosive and sprayers or sprinkler cans used to apply it should be rinsed thoroughly. It may ruin the sprayer eventually, despite thorough rinsing.

HOW MANY ELECTRIC SERVANTS HAVE YOU?

Time was when your electric bill was mainly a "light bill." Many of us can remember how happy we were to have clean, economical electric lights replace kerosene lamps.

Over the years, electricity has opened a completely new and wonderful way of life that most folks take for granted.

No longer do we merely have a "light bill." A closer look at modern living shows that today we enjoy cool, clean electric cooking, electric refrigeration and air conditioning, electric toasters, dishwashers, garbage disposals, television, radio and dozens of other conveniences made possible through plentiful, low-cost electricity. Truly electricity is the biggest bargain in the family budget.

Yes, although the cost of living has gone up 108% since 1936, and costs of doing business have risen rapidly, the average price per unit of TP&L residential electricity has gone down 43%. Texas Power & Light Company... a business-managed, tax-paying public utility... pledges its continued efforts toward keeping your supply of electricity plentiful... and the price low.

Checks For Spring Fashion Styles

Creating fashion excitement in new shades and silhouettes, spring suits give a special endorsement to checks. In all sizes from mammoth to minute, and in all colors, checks enliven a variety of styles, and bid fair to make the checked suit one of spring's favorite ideas.

Among the new shapes offered, in checks and, of course, solids and other prints, are the suit with short (just below the waistline) and lightly fitted jacket, and the demi-fitted costume suit with matching blouse and jacket lining. Looking especially new is the suit with fitted jacket, now making a comeback by popular demand. A compromise silhouette is the fitted-effect suit jacket, which indents slightly at the waistline and has a belt or half-belt.

Leather belts return as an important part of many suits, and fur trimmings put in a spring-suit appearance.

Extremely high-waisted effects are bypassed in favor of jackets that hint at a heightened waist line through belting, seaming or gathers.

Variations in fit are confined mostly to jackets, which range from easy and unfitted through semi-fitted. Skirt silhouettes generally agree on slim and smooth-fitting lines, with a pretty minority of pleated skirts and skirts softly gathered at the waistline.

When it comes to color, everything goes! And, in a season bright with color, the neutrals — navy, beige, gray, black — hold an unusually strong position.

Suits with reversible jackets — a neutral hue on one side, a lively pastel on the other — are particularly adept at expressing spring's interest in color and neutrals.

Aside from the suit-with-blouse costume, there are, in suit departments, coat-dress costumes, coat-skirt costumes, and jacketed dresses.

CHECKED FOR SPRING

Checks form the most important fabric design for spring. There's great variation in size and color. Prominent are black, brown, red or navy with white.

Closer to the body is the fitting trend of spring fashions, but the poured-in look is avoided.

Wide collars, some shoulder-spanning, have strong fashion significance this season.

New Hat Fashions For Spring To Feature Higher Crowns, Flowers

Fashion's "lifted look", with its focus on the top of the silhouette gets support from milliners, who give spring hats more height in the crowns.

Along with this goes more news many women who would like their hats to show greater respect for their hairdos. Spring hats take notice of the coiffure. New silhouettes often show more hair, and where the hair is covered, the hats are designed to protect the coiffure against excessive musing.

Higher crowns frequently combine with wider brims this spring. The breton has a high-rising brim that goes straight up. Whether the brim is wide or narrow, the classic cloche keeps a tall crown. Toques are step-like or smoothly slanted. Sailors combine high or spread crowns with bumper brims while pillboxes show new depth.

Wide-brimmed hats, flower-heaped and head-hugging shapes are noted among the popular spring silhouettes. Still others have an Oriental motif.

Whatever the silhouette, hats show new softness, both in shaping and trims. Fabrics are put to good use, from the airy light organdies to the textury checks, and many creators accent the use of fabrics in their designs. Both textured and smooth straws are evident in the millinery fashion world, the latter predominating.

Feathers, satin or grosgrain banding, velvet, chiffon and flowers from tiny to out-size are among the many pretty spring trimmings.

Often suggested for how-to-wear a hat is a back-on-the-head pose. These back-tipping of hats reveals the hairline, and adds to the ways hats are considerate of coiffures.

Clear colors give spring hats extra sparkle. Use of colors in pairs creates a newer look, particularly in duos of black and white or yellow and orange.

The blue spectrum, from the palest shade to royal or turquoise enhances the color scene, as do bright hues of sun yellow, acid green, paprika and brassy gold.

White, as ever, gives the clean fresh look for spring and offers pleasant contrast in the color panorama. In addition to the many black-and-whites, there are all black hats, seen most frequently black patent shoes and bags.

Convention Delegate DAR Chapter Names

Mrs. D. E. Currie, Regent of Sarah McCalla Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, has announced that an invitation has been received for chapter members to attend the Sixtieth Annual State Conference of the Texas Society, which will be held in Galveston, March 17-20.

Mrs. J. C. Freeman of Maysfield and Mrs. H. T. Coulter of Rockdale and Miss Aetna Smith and Mrs. Henry Hefley of Cameron will serve as delegates and alternates from the local chapter.

FOR TOP INTEREST

Short sleeves for suits and coats, wider sleeves and softly shaped yokes are among fashion's new ways of achieving top interest for spring silhouettes.

Shoe Colors Feature Five Top Families

Color becomes a family affair in women's shoes for spring — a five-family affair, in fact. Grouped according to popularity, the five top families of fashion colors in leather shoes include hot pinks, brilliant reds, bright blues, light salad greens going into Irish green and avocados, and deep, hot oranges and sea corals.

Other favored colors are mauve-pinks, lilacs and deep purples, featured mainly in dress shoes. Continuing in popularity, too, is the bone, toast and the grayed browns.

Particularly beautiful are these dazzling colors interpreted in new calfskins that are silky soft with a subdued luster, shown for dressy casual or street wear.

Use of multi-color for spring shoes is best interpreted in casual styles, but two-tone combinations are seen in daytime and dress shoes: blue brushed leather with accents of green smooth leather geranium pink with pale orange in smooth, lustrous leathers, blue shocking pinks with lilac leather.

Shoe leather blues are closely attuned to fabric blues — all with a lot more spark than seen in previous years.

Ultra smooth surfaces or softly brushed leathers have great fashion appeal. Textured leathers, very finely grained, are seen in tailored shoes for street or country wear. High in popularity, too, are patent leathers in new fashion colors.

Shape of the shoe continues to be lean and tapered with needle-point toe or with a flattened and gently squared toe. The closed toe and heel pump is most favored, but the pump opens up a bit for spring, with cutout vamps and variations of the T-straps and ties.

The open shoe, such as the close-ed-toe muleback, wide strap styles that replace the stripping sandal and halter styles, finds a fashionable place at after-five occasions.

CUTAWAY LIKED

A modified cutaway line high in front, dipping slightly lower in back — is liked for easy suits. Wide belts for dresses and suits follow the same line.

Freshness Of Spring Inspires Important Trends In Jewelry

Spring is the season of newness — and the jewelry designed to complement spring fashions takes its inspiration straight from this mood of the new and the fresh, reports the Fashion Coordination Institute.

Important among the new trends is the shorter length of necklaces. Short bibs, shorter chokers and the shortest necklace of all, the dog collar, star for spring.

Short sleeves for suits and dresses spotlight bracelets, with a deep-cuff look and jeweled and textured surfaces.

Earrings assume new forms and designs to complement the shorter necklaces. Button earrings, with a dimensional, "crusted" and jeweled look, pair with short bibs or chokers, while other earrings sweep up the outline of the ear, to provide just the right accent for the dog collar.

Pins, pins and more pins of every size, shape and description fill a big fashion role.

But perhaps the most spring-like touch of all in new jewelry is color. With many pale pastels and many neutrals seen in dresses, suits and coats, colored jewelry has special importance in the fashion scheme of things, the Institute reports.

Top Interest Seen For Spring Styles

Fashion plans for spring revolve around the costume look. Although the general style trend is upward shorter skirts, lifted-look waistlines, more top interest effects—the emphasis is not so much on silhouette as on the attractive combination of all fashion elements.

Such spring partnerships as the dress plus jacket or coat, the coat with a coordinated blouse are present in abundance, ready for wearing. Certainly one or all of these will find their way into most wardrobes, and fashion-conscious women will want to assemble additional costumes, from dresses, coats, suits, jackets and blouses that are purchased separately.

As a focal point of fashion, costumes reveal the outstanding spring trends. Take, for instance, the brief jackets help to carry out the length, that appear so frequently in dress-jacket combinations. These brief jackets help to carry out the high-waisted look, which is often just a look and not an actuality. Thus, a fitted sheath with natural waistline may rely on its accompanying short jacket to give a high-line effect.

Wide belts, fitted midriffs, brief bodices in contrasting colors and fabrics, and high-placed tabs, bows or belts are other ways that the lifted look is created.

Silhouette More Fitted

All point up the fact that, while spring fashions owe inspiration of the empire and Directoire, some flattering changes have been made. Even when the raised waistline is a matter of fit rather than look, the trend is away from the midriff fullness if the true empire and toward a more fitted line.

Spring's view of color—plenty of "hot" and pale hues, with strengthening interest in basic navy, beige, black and gray—is beautifully illustrated by coat and dress costumes, in such combinations as a pale beige coat over a dress printed in the vividest of pastels. Often the coat is line to match the dress.

Important coat entries for spring as part of costumes or individually—are the coat with the gathered and tapered or blade-pleated back, the fitted coat, the slim leath coat and the coat with a softly gathered high waistline.

With much attention being given to top interest, shoulder lines, of both coats and suits are often wider, though not padded. More top interest comes from the big, big collar, a major fashion theme.

ADDS A Scarf

In contrast, there's the collarless or mandarin neckline, indicative of an Oriental feeling seen in many phases of spring fashion. Top interest isn't neglected here, for the collarless-neckline coat or suit usually comes with a matching, and probably fringed, muffler-like scarf to wrap the neckline.

Because of the emphasis on the costume look, many suits are equipped with their own blouses. An added touch of completeness is provided by matching jacket linings.

As in the dress-jacket costume, the short, easy jacket is a favorite suit component. Fitted and demi-fitted jackets for other suits are prophetic of future fashion trends.

Continuing the interest in texture fashions appear in such fabrics as tweeds, mohairs, hopsackings, basketweaves. Spring-favored, too, are crisp, smooth-surfaced fabrics which take their place in fashion importance alongside the dimensional weaves.

Simply designed to emphasize the fabric is this eyelet-embroidered broadcloth blouse. Bow trim suggests a "lifted look."

Cotton with a knitted look fashions a striped drawstring blouse for spring. The fabric is cotton tricknit, which appears to be, but isn't, a knitted material. In a color choice of hot pink or green, it's styled with convertible Peter Pan collar and brass buttons. By MacShore.

Look, Varied Trims Of Appliques, Beads

Gloves have an especially elegant look this spring. Trimming techniques are many and varied and always subtle. Typical are all-over pin tucks, appliques and discreet beading.

Embroideries have a hand-made delicate air. They appear in both vivid colors and such soft shades as pale green, blue and yellow. Some are empire-inspired designs of fruits or flowers.

Eyelets and perforations serve as decorations and also offer coolness.

Leather trims are popular, too, and leather is often combined with fabric. Patterned sheer nylon teamed with French kid looks new, feels light and comfortable, while washable leather and stretch yarns are another favorite combination. Feather-weight washable kid, pique, printed cotton and stretch gloves are all in fashion's favor. High-count cotton gloves are closely knit, very soft to the touch and, in some cases, give the appearance of doeskin.

Easy-care virtues are offered by pastel striped nylon sheers and French knots and fagoting. Novelty jerseys and suedes with band and fold trimming are other good glove choices.

Dresses Follow The High Road To '59 Fashion

Dresses are taking the high road to fashion this spring. "high" meaning anything that is, or looks as if it is, above the normal waistline. While there aren't many with true empire lines, a wide variety of "lifted looks" and "short waisted" looks may be chosen to flatter many different figure types.

One of the favored ways to achieve this look is through dress and jacket costumes, composed of dresses with a closer-to-the-body fit and jackets that stop just below the bustline or just above the waistline.

The trick may also be turned by mock bolero effects, contrast bodices, high-placed bows, inset bands, seaming or buttons. Then there are high rising contoured belts, sashes, draped scarves and drawstrings, all of which contribute to the "lifted look" for dresses.

Alternates to the high-rise effect are offered by many dresses with natural waistlines, some with dropped waistlines, and princess styles. Blouses continue as a popular favorite, with blousing often starting above the waist. Tunics provide a new and fashionable look for still other dresses.

Wide belts and pretty bodice treatments give freshness to the many spring '59 versions of the shirtwaist, the sheath and the bouffant.

Neckline interest centers around large collars, usually standing away from the neck and often pleated, fluted or folded. Spring-like lingerie touches of white linen, lace or organdy are favored.

COSTUME IDEAS

Pretty version of the costume suit has a print blouse with the new wider collar, which also serves as the collar of the suit. Other suits are ready for day or evening roles, with decollete satin overblouses.

Joining fashion's upward trend, new hats show more height for crowns. This tall step-toque is designed of sea coral milan straw, with a matching organza band. For added charm, there's a giant rose, fashioned from swirls of milan and organdy.

Airy, Textured Spring Fabrics

Appropriately for spring, new fabrics take on an airy look, with textures refined, and often crisp. Mohairs are fluffy rather than shaggy and tweeds and other fabrics show a marked preference for almost-lacy effects.

Looped mohairs and souffle wools are impressive in open basketweaves, and fishnet mohair makes an entry, looking refreshingly springlike. Other cool and lacy looks are achieved in wool and mohair boucles, hopsackings, and blends of wool with silk, cotton or synthetics.

Some looped mohairs have been pressed flat, making for a novel effect and easier care. Also favored are brushed surfaces, tweeds lightly embellished with mohair loops and the knit look.

Worsteds express texture interest through ribbed, linen-like or knit-look surfaces, with classic checked and glen-plaid worsteds continuing popular. One of the nicest new ideas in worsted for spring is worsted crepe, liked especially for suits and costumes.

On the crisp side are the refined tweeds, appearing in wool or silk or in blends of wool and silk. There's crispness, too, in new looking blends of reindeer hair and wool.

Silk — a frequent choice for the all-popular dress and jacket costume — goes along with wool in the demand for texture interest. Rustics, such as tussah, and douppioni are among the leaders.

Both cotton and the manmade fibers show a new talent for emulating wool and silk in many dimensional textures.
